OCEANSIDE BUSINESS SPOTLIGHT

ZOE GUITARS & OCEANSIDE CERAMICS

Zoe Guitars, owner and luthier Shawn Weimer, loves creating and building unique acoustic guitars. His love of both music and wood, high standards, attention to detail, and craftsmanship skills all work together to allow him to create exceptional, heirloom-quality, beautiful guitars.

Sally Weimer, the owner of Oceanside Ceramics, specializes in ocean pottery and nature-inspired ceramic art in artistic bowls, planters, cremation urns, and mugs. Each of her pieces is a one-of-a-kind artistic creation reflecting the beauty of nature.

Each of his high-end creations is one-of-a-kind and made from rare and exotic woods that meet his very high standards. Ordering a custom Zoe Guitar is an exclusive experience you will never forget!

If you are interested in learning more about what is involved in possibly having Shawn build you a new dream guitar, he will be more than happy to discuss all the steps and possibilities.

Every piece of pottery is created to be a unique work of art. Sally likes to think of each piece as a ceramic creation, a blank canvas for a new painting that can never be reproduced! Sally always hand brushes the glaze, unlike some potters who use the dipping method, which is much faster.

All pottery is hand thrown on Sally's potter's wheel, glazed by hand, and fired at least twice in her kiln. The beauty of handmade pottery is that no two pieces are the same. There is no assembly line production going on in this pottery studio! Each piece is a unique, original piece of art, created with imagination, patience, and love!

Zoe Guitars and Oceanside Ceramics are both located at 101 Copperwood Way, Ste A in the Copperwood Center. Incidentally, Shawn and Sally's corporate name is "Timber, Love & Clay", chosen because it incorporates both guitars and pottery – their two loves!

OCEANSIDE POLE

Oceanside Pole Tomatoes: Growing for three generations, the Singh family is California's last remaining pole tomato producer. Since 1939, they have tended vine-ripened tomatoes on the same land with the knowledge and expertise that can only come with time. Harry Singh Jr., the master grower, learned from his father and has passed his passion and knowledge down to his children, who actively operate the business today.

The Singhs greatly value those who nurture the land and the plants alongside them. Supporting workers by offering higher than average wages and hiring veterans are just a few ways their stewardship of land and community is demonstrated.

Affectionately growing vine-ripened tomatoes for more than 70 years speaks to their powerful legacy, daily commitment to flavor and quality, and pursuit of excellence into the future.

With nearly 2.2 million cases of vine-ripened round tomatoes and over 1.6 million cases of Roma tomatoes expected to be picked from one million poles on 800 acres, the leading grower, marketer, and distributor of fresh produce from around the world is shipping the Oceanside Pole label to its loyal fanbase. Oceanside Pole is located at 5780 Mission Rd.
